Special Recognition Awards

Resilience Award (HOH)

This is awarded to any pupil who has shown great resilience in overcoming a difficulty that might have hindered their progress at school.

Service to the school Award (HOH)

This is awarded to a pupil who has gone above and beyond in their service to the school.

Rising Star Award (HOH)

This award is given to any pupil who has shown through their academic studies or activities beyond the classroom that they have the potential to be a rising star of the future.

Volunteering Community Award (HOH)

This is awarded to pupils across the different houses who have gone above and beyond in their volunteering within the school community.

House Cup (HOH)

This is awarded to a pupil in Year 11 who has embodied the values, attitudes and principles for which their house stands for. They will be an outstanding role model to the younger pupils in their house.
