Virtual Production and Workshop on Healthy Relationships and Harmful Sexual Behaviours

Dear Parents and Carers,

As part of our ongoing commitment to supporting the personal development and wellbeing of our pupils, we are pleased to be working with Loudmouth, a respected Theatre in Education company, to deliver a powerful and thought-provoking virtual production and workshop titled Calling it Out.

This session is designed to educate and empower students by exploring issues around harmful sexual behaviours, consent, and healthy relationships. It aims to provide students with the tools and confidence to recognise inappropriate behaviour, challenge it safely, and seek support when needed.

The workshop forms part of our broader Personal Development programme and directly supports our Beacon Values, particularly Acting Responsibly and Owning Your Actions. These values are central to our ethos and help guide our students in becoming thoughtful, respectful, and responsible members of our community.

Pupils in Year 10 will take part in this important session during the school day on Thursday 26th June, accompanied by their form tutors. The format includes a filmed drama followed by an interactive workshop, allowing pupils to reflect, ask questions, and discuss key themes in a safe and supportive environment.

We believe that open and honest education on these topics is vital for helping young people navigate complex social situations with confidence and empathy.

If you have any questions or would like further information about the content of the session, please do not hesitate to contact us via postbox@barrbeaconschool.co.uk.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs K Hibbs
